READY Flowers SCAM

Hey Guys, contact your bank and let them know about the scam. They will be able to refund your money. This is the best way.

Yup - such a scam - did a charge back on my order. I'm perplexed as to how they're still allowed to process credit card transactions!

I did not let up on them and contacted my bank to contest it and made a complaint to fraud squad. You need to threaten them then they eventually cave in.... Don't let them win
